An idea...

...of mainstreaming occupational safety
and health (OSH) into education

What does mainstreaming mean?

.... bringing something into the main stream. A certain aspect that has not been decisive for actions up to now, becomes a guideline for all decisions and processes.

ENETOSH Plattform

The screenshot shows the ENETOSH website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for 'IMPRINT', 'HELP', and 'INTERNAL'. Below this is the ENETOSH logo and a search bar. The main navigation menu includes 'NETWORK', 'GOOD PRACTICE' (highlighted), 'TOOL BOX', and 'WHO IS WHO'. The 'GOOD PRACTICE' section is active, displaying a list of categories on the left: 'Kindergarten/ School', 'Initial Vocational Education and Training', 'Higher Education', 'Continuing Vocational Education and Training', and 'Archive'. The main content area features a 'Good Practice' titled 'Safety & Health In Education & Training' with a link to 'All Examples A-Z'. Below the title are four image thumbnails representing different educational levels: 'Kindergarten/ School', 'Initial Vocational Education and Training', 'Higher Education', and 'Continuing Vocational Education and Training'. On the right side, there are two additional sections: 'TOTAL NUMBER' with a link to a graph and 'BACKGROUND INFORMATION' with links to 'New examples', 'Criteria', 'Toolbox', 'Code of conduct', and 'Glossary'.
