

Framework for cooperation between the European Agency for Safety and Health at Work (EU-OSHA) and the European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)

1. This framework for cooperation between EU-OSHA<sup>1</sup> and EIGE<sup>2</sup> aims at establishing an effective arrangement to ensure synergies between the work of the two organisations and avoid duplication of activities.
2. The basic aim of EU-OSHA is to provide the Community bodies, the Member States, the social partners and those involved in the field of occupational safety and health with the technical, scientific and economic information of use in the field of safety and health at work. The importance of the gender dimension to occupational safety and health and as a consequence to EU-OSHA's work has been increasingly recognised, for example in the Community Strategies on occupational safety and health.<sup>3</sup>
3. The basic aim of EIGE is to contribute to and strengthen the promotion of gender equality, including gender mainstreaming in all Community policies and the resulting national policies, and the fight against discrimination based on sex, and to raise EU citizens' awareness of gender equality by providing technical assistance to the Community institutions, in particular the Commission, and the authorities of the Member States.
4. It is in the public interest as well as in the common interest of both organisations to increase their cooperation in relation to different topics including the collection, analysis and dissemination of information related to gender equality issues.
5. Both organisations will promote an active and on-going cooperation with each other.
